CITY MANAGER APPROVAL:

SUMMARY:	After speaking with City Manager Michael Hornes on Tuesday April 24, 2018 in regards to the food trucks meeting the requirement of the fire code that was adopted by the council on August 28, 2017. He stated that he wanted the food trucks to come to Palestine so that citizens could have a variety of different foods. In order to do so the City Manager is wanting me to amend the ordinance that would allow the food trucks serving water based cooking being able to serve without meeting the code. An ordinance to allow food trucks serving water based cooked items to serve their respective products as long as the truck has the following items: 1-5#ABC or larger Fire Ext (Tagged & Annually inspected by licensed company) And a buffer of 15(fifteen) feet around the food truck shall be maintained at all times.
-----------------	---

RECOMMENDED ACTION:	Following the recommendation from the City Manager, Staff recommends amending the current ordinance in regards to food trucks.
